International students who have been accepted to Alderson Broaddus University are required by the United States Citizen and Immigration Services, Department of Homeland Security, to submit documented evidence of financial support. The U.S. government requires that all international students provide proof of ability to pay tuition and living expenses before the I-20 Certificate of Eligibility can be issued. For visa and consular information, check the AB International Student web page.

Guidelines for Submitting Financial Documents

Determining I-20 Expenses - Financial support must be sufficient to cover the student's estimated expenses for one academic year (9-12 months) as determined by Alderson Broaddus University. The amounts on the expense sheet are calculated by the Office of Financial Aid for immigration purposes only in order to demonstrate to immigration authorities that an international student will not become a public charge during their stay in the U.S. Actual tuition and living expenses may be higher or lower depending on a student's course load and living situation. An issued I-20 should not be considered a bill of expense for Alderson Broaddus University.

Please note that U.S. law makes it extremely difficult for International Students to procure jobs either on or off campus, so families should also think about an allowance for miscellaneous expenses while in the United States.

Submitting Acceptable Documents - How to Submit Financial Documents

Documents can be sent as an email attachment, preferably in one PDF file, to Jill Nussel, International Student Coordinator, at nusseljm@ab.edu or faxed to 304-457-6239. Please send them as one PDF, smaller than 10MB in size. Alternately, they can be mailed via international courier like FedEx. The International Student web page, under "documents" will provide instructions on obtaining an expedited mailing.

Additionally, students must submit a copy of their passport as well as a copy of their dependent's passport (if applicable). This can be a scanned copy emailed to the International Student Coordinator.

ABU Guidelines for Submitting Proof of Financial Support

The U.S. government requires that all international students provide proof of ability to pay tuition and living expenses an I20 or can be issued.

Requirements for All Financial Documents

- Current date (no earlier than one year before the start of your first term at Alderson Broaddus University)
- Account holder's name
- Documents from banks, scholarships, etc. must be on official letterhead and include signature/stamp of an administrative officer or official.
- Must state the available final balance/total scholarship amount
- Certified, professional translations for all financial documents not issued in English.
- Sponsors. It is NOT required for International Students to have a U.S. sponsor for the F-1 non-immigrant student visa. However, for the purpose of the Statement of Support, any person who is not a parent who is providing funds as a gift or loan is considered a sponsor.
 - Sponsors living in the United States, as citizens or immigrants, must complete Homeland Security Form I-134. Note that ABU policy prohibits any ABU faculty, staff, or coach from acting as a sponsor.
 - Sponsors living outside the United States must include a Sponsorship letter OR an additional Affidavit of Support verify the sources of funding.

Types of Financial Support that are Normally Accepted *

- ABU scholarships/assistantships.
- Scholarships and financial aid from all sources. Submit the award letter including amount and duration.
- Bank letters/statements from savings or checking accounts (if a monthly bank statement is provided, only the closing balance of the most recent date will be counted)
- Timed/Fixed deposits or government bonds maturing prior to first term at USC or available for withdrawal at any time
- Solvency certificates and Dematerialized (DEMAT) accounts that specify the balance available for withdrawal
- Funds in investment accounts. Submit the institution's letter of acceptance and amount.
- Approved educational loans
- Employer and government sponsorships/scholarships.
- Provident funds ONLY if document states the amount available for withdrawal
- Salary/payroll statements are accepted only for students or families that will be paying on installments.

Types of Financial Support NOT Accepted*

- Tax returns
- Chartered Accountant portfolio
- Pending or provisional educational loans or scholarship documents
- Retirement funds, pensions, life insurance policies
- Investments in fixed assets such as property, mortgages, jewelry, automobiles, etc.

*Alderson Broaddus University reserves the right to ask for additional proof or additional documents as needed to determine the student's adequate financial resources.

Expenses

Funding can come from any combination of sources, but they must total or exceed $35,240. Failure to pay a student bill on time may lead to dismissal of the student and cancellation of that student's visa.

2016-2017 Academic Year

| Tuition | Fees* | Room | Meal Plan | Books | Total |
|----------|-------|-----------|-----------|---------|-----------------|
| $25,140 | $310 | $3,940 | $4,050 | $1,000 | $34,440 |

*includes the General Fee and Housing Deposit.

Notes:

- These expenses represent the usual freshman expenses that need to be covered for the I-20. This is not a bill.
- The expenses above are the average for freshmen. Housing is based on the standard freshman room. This fee may increase based on housing selected or assigned. (For instance, freshman housing fills up fast. Every effort is made to assign students to their first choice, but in cases where that option is filled, housing will be assigned based on what is left.) Book prices will vary by course and semester.

Expenses NOT included here:

- Health insurance. All students, including international students, are required to have adequate health insurance. International students must secure their own policies. There is a list of potential companies on the AB web site under International Student Services.
- Spending money. The U.S. government does not mandate the inclusion of spending money on the Statement of Support, but applicants should consider what they will need. It is extremely difficult for international students to work in the U.S. Future work cannot be included on this document. Families should consider at least $50 per month for an occasional pizza or movie.
- Sending or receiving documents. You will order labels at your expense when we need to ship documents to you or if you need to ship documents to us. This is usually something done only once during your course of study.
- Deposit. This is a one-time expense that will be subtracted from your tuition. The deposit holds your place at Alderson Broaddus University.
- Other fees. Students may be billed additional fees for programs or labs that will be included on the bill.
