

Alderson Broaddus University

Department of Athletics

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Supervisor:

Head Athletic Trainer

Position Summary:

The assistant athletic trainer is responsible for the prevention, evaluation, management and responsibilities of injuries within the University's comprehensive sports medicine program. Alderson Broaddus University is a Division II NCAA institution located in Philippi, WV. Primary responsibilities include the healthcare of student athletes for football, one sport in both winter and spring season plus one low risk sport (i.e. Tennis, Golf, Cross Country, Swimming, and Cheer)

Qualifications:

Education:

Masters Degree preferred

Experience:

Must have a minimum of 3 years college football experience

Certificate/License:

Must be BOC certified and possess or be in the process of acquiring registration from the state of West Virginia. Must have current CPR/AED/First aid certification through either American Heart Association or American Red Cross.

Duties:

Primary Responsibilities:

1. Prevention of athletic injuries and illnesses
2. Evaluation of athletic injuries
3. Treatment of athletic injuries
4. Providing counseling and education to student athletes
5. Athletic training administrative duties

6. Assist with coordination and scheduling of medical coverage for home and away competitions
7. Assist other athletic trainers as needed
8. Recordkeeping and documentation
9. Work with doctors and other allied health professionals to deliver care to student athletes
10. Assist with supervision of student athletes during drug testing
11. Supervision and administration of work study students

To apply:

Please submit cover letter, resume, and references to hr@ab.edu as one PDF file.

About Alderson Broaddus University:

For more than 144 years, Alderson Broaddus University has been providing a quality education for its students. Overlooking the picturesque Tygart River Valley in Philippi, West Virginia, Alderson Broaddus University students learn and grow in a faith-based learning community. Deeply rooted in the liberal arts, Alderson Broaddus University is a health-related and professional educational institution. Alderson Broaddus University is affiliated with the American Baptist Churches, USA, and the West Virginia Baptist Convention.